LAST YEAR'S TEAM

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 17.-A team composed of last year's college football players now attending the Harvard law school demonstrated on Soldiers' field Wednesday that they could "come back" with a week or two of practice, for by a score of 3 to 0 they defeated the Carlisle indians.

The Indians came to Cambridge with a string of well earned victories and comparatively few defeats, while the law school team had played but one previous game. It was a one man however, for F. B. Philbin, the fleet Yale half back, ran the team from full back's position, where took direct passes either for a dash around the end on his own account or to hurl a forward pass. In the first period when he had driven Carlisle back to the 15 yard line, he dropped a pretty field goal for the only score of the game. Hamilton Fish, the former Harvard captain, led the law school team and was as strong on the defence as Philbin on the

GREAT STRUGGLE OF YALE-HARVARD

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 17.—The Yale and Harvard elevens began today putting the finishing touches on their preparations for the football game Saturday. It is stated today that the Harvard back field in Saturday's game probably will be Wigglesworth at quarterback, Corbett at left half, Ted Trothingham at right half and Leslie or Morrison at full back. Both Yale and Harvard will take long signal practice on the Yale field this afternoon,

FOOTBALL PLAYER HAS HAND BROKEN

E. C. Jones, the big left guard of the Military Institute team, broke two bones in his right hand during the game with the University of Arizona last week and is wearing it in a sling. The accident occurred in a scrimmage during the third quarter of the game but ne played out the game and did not know until he had returned to El Paso the following day what was the matter

Johnstone in descending from his second flight allowed his machine to gain too much momentum. It struck the smooth track used for horse racing and skidded along at a rapid rate. Johnstone signalled for helpers to check the machine. A youth made a flying tackle of one of the wings. The machine swerved into a fence and smashed a

CALCULATIONS UPSET ON

Krum upset calculations by winning the Crescendo handicap at Emeryville. Araze and Spellbound were thought to have the event to themselves, but after they had raced on almost even terms the greater part of the journey, Chester Krum saved ground by getting through next to the rail and won cleverly. Spellbound beat Araze in a drive for second place. Through over confidence on the part of Garner, Lord of the Forest was beaten a head by Roy Junior in the third race. Frank Doss bid up Roy Junior from $500 to $800 and secured him. Archibald rode three winners.
